Did you know about the Mullighan Inquiry in 2004?

The four-year inquiry examined 1,592 allegations of sexual abuse and investigated the deaths of 924 children in state care. This article also examines how children are still being abused and neglected by authorities at present.

SATANIC CULTS in NSW Towns

A news article from 'The Canberra Times' in 1991 reported:

"SYDNEY: Satanic cults involved in cannibalism, mass murder, pack rape and child abuse may be operating in at least 14 NSW towns.

NSW police said last night that reports of satanic abuse would be investigated and urged the public to come forward with any information.

The announcement followed a Channel Ten news report on an Australia-wide satanic organisation allegedly involved in rapes, cannibalistic rituals and child abuse.

The report said complaints about satanic practices had been received by social welfare groups and other agencies in Tamworth, Dubbo, Penrith, Wollongong, Newcastle, Taree, Lismore, Murwillumbah, Bega, Wagga, Goulburn, Port Macquarie, Glen Innes and Nowra.

The cult was said to operate Australia-wide, and allegedly involves high-profile figures in the law, medicine, the media, police and academia."

Included in the link above are more articles and a whistleblower's testimony about a current cult.

Did you know that in 1996 it was reported that there were 50,000 paedophiles in Sydney alone?

This was revealed at 'The Royal Commission into Corruption in the NSW Police Service' by Dr Anne Schlebaum, who gave expert testimony as a therapist to satanic ritual abuse survivors. In addition, she reported that over 30,000 of these paedophiles were engaged in satanic ritual abuse. This was over 20 years ago. What are the numbers today? (See page 109 of the 'Paedophile Inquiry' report).

Did you know that there is even more to the Daruk Boys' Home story?

Stephen Masters, a survivor of Daruk, gives a more in-depth insight into the home. Stephen talks about how children were trafficked through Daruk and many other state care facilities to places like Costello's in Kings Cross. They were allegedly abused by prominent Australians such as judges and politicians. Stephen also talks about his interactions with Ivan Milat, and says Milat was involved in the trafficking of children for the political elite.
